

Corporate Partnership Benefits ($25,000)

A Corporate Partner is a major firm, company or corporation that works with, supports, and/or provides programs, products, or services to physician groups. Benefits include:

- Acknowledgement of partnership to organizational members on APG website and other branded collateral.
- Receipt of publications including Journal of America's Physician Groups' magazine and other general information.
- Attendance at APG General Membership Meetings and other education programs.
- Consideration as faculty to present educational programs at selected APG meetings.
- Complementary sponsorship of two APG General Membership or other meetings; meetings must be approved by APG.
- Preferential consideration given to sponsor/exhibit at APG Annual Conferences.
  - Corporate level consideration for exhibit booth placement.
  - Discounted fees to exhibit at conference vs. non-partners
  - Discounted registration fees for attendees
- Consideration to sponsor, support and participate in APG projects, events, pilots, and focus groups.
- Opportunities to hold special meetings with APG leadership to discuss potential joint initiatives.
- Priority treatment for assistance on healthcare issues from APG staff/officers.
- Priority consideration for article submission in the Journal of America's Physician Groups' magazine

Associate Partnership Benefits ($15,000)

An Associate Partner is a major firm, company or corporation that works with, supports, and/or provides programs, products, or services to physician groups. Benefits include:

- Acknowledgement of partnership to organizational members on APG website and other branded collateral.
- Receipt of publications including Journal of America's Physician Groups' magazine and other general information.
- Attendance at APG General Membership Meetings and other education programs.
- Consideration as faculty to present educational programs at selected APG meetings.
- Preferential consideration given to sponsor/exhibit at APG Annual Conferences.
  - Associate level consideration for exhibit booth placement.
  - Discounted fees to exhibit at conference vs. non-partners
  - Discounted registration fees for attendees
- Consideration to sponsor, support and participate in APG projects and events.
- Priority consideration for article submission in the Journal of America's Physician Groups' magazine

Affiliate Partnership Benefits ($5,000)

An Affiliate Partner is a company, corporation or consulting firm that works with and provides programs, products, or services to physician groups, with total annual revenues under $5 Million. Benefits include:

- Acknowledgement of partnership to organizational members on APG website and other branded collateral.
- Receipt of publications including Journal of America's Physician Groups magazine and other general information.
- Attendance at APG General Membership Meetings and other education programs.
- Preferential consideration given to sponsor/exhibit at APG Annual Conferences.
  - Affiliate level consideration for exhibit booth placement.

- Discounted fees to exhibit at conference vs. non-partners
  - Discounted registration fees for attendees
- Consideration to sponsor, support and participate in APG projects and events.